July 1, 2020

Cuttack: Sri Sri University (SSU) has converted itself to a digital University in just two days' time starting from 13 March 2020. In an era of Social Distancing, when Online Education is going to stay for long time, such a flexibility to change has given an edge to the institution over others. Since, the students had to go home before the completion of the End Semester after the direction of the Odisha

Government, the online classes did not make the students realise that, they are out of their classroom. It was such a pleasing experience for students who studied from the comfort zone of home to complete their end Semester.

The University conducted online End-Semester Examination starting from 16th April 2020 to 7th May 2020. The result of End Semester Examination for all the branches have been declared on 17th May 2020. Sri Sri University is operating in full-fledged digital mode as Social Distancing is advised.

For enhancement of Teaching-Learning experience, the university has imparted Faculty Development Programs on Bloom's Taxonomy and other related domain to get better learning outcome from students. The faculty members and the Management of the University have also been conducting online Management Development Programmes in diverse topics viz., Mind Management, Effective Public Speaking, Yoga, Artificial Intelligence and Machine Learning, Teaching Pedagogy, Agri-business, Entrepreneurship, Digital Marketing, Political Leadership, Ethics, Management etc. for the benefit of the world and adding new content and knowledge in digital platforms. More than 200 free online sessions have been conducted touching the lives of 250,000 on social media channels. Not only the Faculty, the students conduct different sessions on infotainment. Orion- the Annual Cultural Academic Sports festival of the University has started digital sessions in the name of 'Yuvarang' inviting experts from various fields viz., Sports, Business, Entertainment, Yoga, Youth leaders etc.

Moreover, the founder of the Organization, Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar ji has been conducting knowledge and Mediation sessions twice daily, which has been connecting more than 3 Million people across the globe giving them solace. "In a time, when established Universities are finding it difficult to make the digital transition, SSU is leading the way. From 1st July, the Academic year for the existing students have started. The classes for Fresher will begin on 29th July 2020", said the Vice Chancellor Prof. Ajay Kumar Singh.

The President of the University, Mrs. Rajita Kulkarni said, the University is futuristic in its planning, and it should plan until 2023. She mentioned five mantras to practice viz., taking care of mind and body, taking responsibility (being self-driven), resilience, skills required for the new world to be acquired, to support and take care of one another

For Dhawal Bansal, 3rd year Bachelor of Commerce Honours feels that the world is moving towards a digital era and that adaptation to such an environment in the quickest way possible is the ultimate key for all. "I am really glad that my university has taken such a timely initiative towards the implementation of online classes. Our University always emboldens us towards new experiences". Many parents too are appreciating the resourcefulness of educational institutions on going digital and providing quality education with an edge. "When I compare the education system of my time to the present day, I find a see change. SSU has done a wonderful transition in such a short time ensuring that, students utilise their time meaningfully during lockdown obeying the norms of the time. SSU has taken the decision, which many institutions are taking now. This shows the prudence of the organization and future readiness." Says Rashim Gupta father of Mridul Gupta, 1st year student of Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA).

SSU is imparting 43 academic programs in online mode in the 2020-21 academic year. It is said that, the quicker adaptability has made SSU above others and the University is all set to herald a new era of innovative education

KLF Bhava Samvad Hosts Bhanumathi Narasimhan, the best selling author, the celebrated sister of Sri Sri Ravi Shankar

July 11, 2020

Bhubaneswar: Bhanumathi Narasimhan, popularly known as Bhanu Didi or Bhanu Maa, is the best selling author, institution builder and a spiritual leader. She is the celebrated younger sister of Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar, a revered spiritual master, global peace leader, and renowned humanitarian.

Bhanu Didi graced Bhava Samvad, a popular web-platform of the Kalinga Literary Festival (KLF). She shared her journey as the younger sister of Spiritual Master Sri Sri Ravi Shankar and how she grew up following her brother as a child and as an adult. She wrote the best selling book Gurudev: On the Plateau of the Peak, a biography of Sri Sri Ravi Shankar Ji to provide a glimpse to the life of her master while chronicling her evolution as a sister, spiritual seeker, a leader in the cause of women and a committed servant in the cause of development, empowerment, and peace.

She has taken several initiatives to empower children and women through the Art of Living International Foundation. To promote holistic education she has launched the “Gift a smile –

Care-for-Children” program, a free school initiative that imparts value-based holistic education for underprivileged children from rural, tribal, and slum areas. There are more than 700 schools around India from 20 states educating over 70,000 children with a special focus on girl children. She spoke about her recent book “Parashakti – Magical Stories of the Divine Mother”, where she ‘unravels the hidden essence of the awe-inspiring stories of Goddesses, explains the meaning behind the Yantras and Mantras and more.

While speaking about her children’s book “Gods and Goddesses”, she highlighted why we need to take responsibility for our children and familiarise them with our ancient roots, culture, sciences of happiness and wellbeing. This popular book has been appreciated as ‘a wonderful first guide for young readers on the most popularly revered Gods and Goddesses in India.’

While talking about the contemporary challenges and the role of authors, Bhanu Didi strongly argued in favor of a genre of writing that uplifts the human spirit and brings knowledge and happiness to our lives. She went on to add that technology when used appropriately becomes a great force of positivity, connectedness, and happiness. On a question of how to ensure the well-being of people especially in the era of lockdowns (and social distancing), she highlighted the effectiveness of meditation and pointed out how distance can never be the barrier in wishing well of our people.

Mr. Kamala Kanta Dash, a co-founder of KLF, briefly introduced the theme and welcomed the Chief Guest Bhanu Didi and moderator Mrs. Rajita Kulkarni, the President of Sri Sri University. Mrs. Kulkarni who is an academic thought leader, educationist, and institution builder with decades of experience in industry and leadership coaching, introduced Bhanu Didi to the viewers, asked several engaging questions regarding techniques of writing, community engagement, spiritual wellbeing, women empowerment, depression in times of COVID-19 and role of meditation in daily life. She also read a powerful passage from the Parashakti book and engaged Bhanu Didi in a rapid-fire of questions as received from the audience.

At the end of the session, Mrs. Kulkarni thanked Bhanu Didi on behalf of the team KLF and Team Sri Sri University, the knowledge partner of the event.
