Looking to sky with Orion 2019 at Sri Sri University

Every society is driven by a handful yet powerful ideas, events and people. Such society constructing factors are pervasive but often struggle to get a platform where it can converge fruitfully. "Life is and should be a celebration of diversity. Celebration of people from different backgrounds, age groups, race, religions," as rightly said by Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar. At a time when diversification of cultures, practices, ideas and opinions has become the mantra for a progressive environment, Sri Sri University has brought this 'unity in variation' essence through its fifth annual fest, Orion 2019. Established in 2014, Orion, intends to give students a platform to showcase their talents and pamper their high-spirited, energetic nature. The grandeur festival starts from 18th January and continues till 20th January. Its uniqueness and beauty lie in its 27 events which celebrate diversification and inclusion of cultural, sports and management activities, catering to the skillset of youth from different fields of interest. This inter-university annual festival brings together 5000 students from different walks of life to compete and participate in the various competitions and events which shall put to test their creative, intellectual and artistic skills.

The theme of Orion 2019 being 'A Pursuit of Brilliance', aims at providing a kaleidoscope of opportunities, a vast exposure and loads of fun which will coincide with the participants' talents, ideas and expressions. With just a few days left for the inauguration of the finest, vibrant and the most opportunistic event, Orion 2019, students of Sri Sri University have paved the way to put up a successful show, comprising of academic challenges

DOWN THE MEMORY LANE OF ORION

Since the time of its inception, Orion has witnessed an exponential growth. In the year 2014, Orion had witnessed only 1000 students. And within a span of four years, i.e., Orion 2018 had witnessed an average massive footfall of 6,000 students from across the state and the neighbouring states. Inspired by its motto of 'Best of East and Best of West', Orion has showcased cultural performances by celebrity artists in its prior years viz., Purbayan Chatterjee, Ojas Adhiya, DJ Anish Sood, DJ Paroma and Folkbox band. Global Lecture series are also held to hone the business acumen of the Management graduates as well.

ALL YOU NEED TO KNOW ABOUT ORION 2019

Orion, the inter-university annual festival intends to play hosts to the most strikingly talented scholars, academicians, performers and celebrate the congregation of Culture, Academics and Sports. With an expected footfall of 10,000 enthusiasts from different walks of life, Orion will be hosting 25+ events this year. The Chief Guest of the Inaugural Ceremony will be Hon'ble Minister of Family and Health Welfare, Law, Information and Public Relations, Shri Pratap Jena. Besides these events, Orion also hosts a lot of community linkage programs like blood donation camps, cloth donation drives, cycle marathons etc. These ensure that a belongingness towards the general society gets instilled into the millennial's lives.

The sports events will kick start from 18th January whereas, the rest of the on-stage and off-stage cultural and business events will take place from 18th January.

Orion 2019 kicks off at Sri Sri varsity

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bhubaneswar

AMID divine vedic chanting, sports meet 'Orion 2019' kicked off at Sri Sri University ground in Cuttack on Wednesday.

Speaking on the occasion, Sports and Youth Services Minister Chandra Sarathi Behera urged the participants to indulge in a healthy competition and put their best foot forward.

The sports meet includes a number of inter-university competitions like basketball, volleyball, table tennis, cricket and futsal.

Vice Chancellor of Sri Sri University Dr Nand Lal highlighted the importance of sports. Director of Operations Narendra Lamba said sportsmanship is the quality that needs to grow among youths.

The Osteopathy department of the university also organised a workshop on Fascia which was attended by renowned osteopaths from France, Copenhagen and Denmark. While Dr Alain Gehin from France explained the importance of interference of obturator fascia in pelvic stability with a live demonstration, Stanley Rosenberg from Copenhagen deliberated on techniques to relax the autonomic nervous system.

Thor Philipsen, an osteopath from Denmark, explained how a scar tissue can restrict the physiological function affecting health of an individual. He showed the audience a take-away technique to release a scar tissue.

The meet also witnessed iconic art festival Cultural Ensemble of Hues 2019. Inter-weaved with a theme titled 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam', the international cultural event united artistes from various countries including France, Nepal, Sri Lanka, Vietnam and Hanoi. Curated by Shama Shondhi, the event also witnessed live art demonstration of a portrait of Gurudev Sri Sri Ravi Shankar.

Lok Sabha MP Prasanna Patasani, Odisha Lalit Kala Akademi secretary Manash Ranjan Jena, Sri Sri University executive registrar Commodore Ghanshyam Ojha and member of board of studies Chakradhar Behera were present.
