SDG2: ZERO HUNGER

2.3.2 Students and staff hunger interventions

The food ecosystem at Sri Sri University is driven by its stakeholders including its students and staff members. The menus for meals are decided by the University Mess Committee.

To mitigate needs of food and essential items, there is a Multipurpose Departmental Store inside the campus called Sri Sri Tattva Shop. It provides access to organic, healthy, and nutritious food products at affordable rates. Also, items of daily use ranging from stationery, groceries, snacks, cookies, juices, beverages, beauty, hygiene, cleaning, household, apparel, books, etc. are stocked in the Sri Sri Tattva Shop.

Food banks in the form of pantries are set up in academic & administrative blocks. Self Help pantries are established in the hostel buildings for ready to eat food for urgent nutritional needs. These pantries are useful for the stakeholders to prepare minimal processing foods, snacks, and beverages.
