Brief Report	Plastic is a necessary evil in today's world. Plastic and its derivatives are omnipresent in modern times, from grocery bags to PVC pipes, from kitchenware to pet bottles; plastic and its derivatives are everywhere. However, poor waste management is burying us in every part of our blue world, from the Arabian Sea's coastlines to the tropical paradises of Hawaii and the Pacific Islands, from the majestic Himalayas to Australia's Great Barrier Reef. It wasn't until the 1950s that global plastic production grew at a breakneck pace. Plastic Waste Cleaning drive was organized by the students of NSS Unit
