1. Preamble

The Anti-bribery and Anti-Corruption Policy ("Policy") of Sri Sri University ("SSU") has been developed in alignment with SSU's code of conduct for employees, various policies (including whistle blower policy, policy on management of conflict of interest), rules and regulations adopted by SSU and in conformance with the legal and statutory framework of anti-bribery and anti-corruption legislation prevalent in India. The Policy reflects the commitment of SSU and its management for maintaining highest ethical standards while undertaking open and fair business and culture, following the best practices of corporate governance, and enhancing the SSU's reputation at appropriate levels.

2. Purpose

This Policy emphasizes SSU's zero tolerance towards bribery and corruption practices. The Policy provides necessary information and guidance on how to recognize and deal with bribery and corruption issues. The purpose of this Policy is to establish clear rules to ensure compliance with all applicable anti-bribery and anti-corruption laws.

3. Scope

This Policy applies to all Stakeholders, or any other person associated with SSU and who may be acting on behalf of SSU.

This Policy sets out the minimum standard that must be always followed. Where any local regulations are stricter than this Policy, they will take precedence over this Policy.

4. Definitions

- i. Bribe/ Bribery: means the offering, promising, giving, receiving, soliciting, or accepting of a financial or other advantage, or any other thing of value, with the intention of influencing or rewarding the behavior of a person in a position of trust to perform a public, commercial or legal function to obtain or retain a commercial advantage. Bribes are payments made in the form of money or anything of value in return for a business favor or advantage. For e.g., Gifts taken or received to unfairly influence a business outcome, facilitation payments made for facilitating the performance of a routine governmental action etc.
- ii. Facilitation Payments: Facilitation payments are unofficial payments made to secure or expedite a routine government action by a Government Official. These include small payments made, directly or indirectly, to Government Officials for the purpose of expediting or securing routine, non-discretionary government action, such as securing a business permit or license, customs invoice, or visa, or providing services like police protection.
- iii. Family Member: A spouse, parent, sibling, grandparent, child, grandchild, mother or father-in-law, domestic partner, or other family member who lives with you or who is otherwise financially dependent on you, or on whom you are financially dependent.
- iv. Government Official: Government Official refers to any 'public servant' as defined under the Indian Prevention of Corruption Act 1988, including inter alia the following:
 - an officer, employee, agent, or other individual, regardless of rank or title, acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of central government, state government, local authority, or establishments under the control of such government (including any official adviser to the government), its departments, agencies, or instrumentalities, including government- or state-owned or controlled entities (e.g., national oil company, state-run utility, public hospital, sovereign wealth fund);
 - any judge, including any person empowered by law to discharge, whether by himself

9. Salvo

or as a member of any body of persons, any adjudicatory functions or any person authorized by a court of justice to perform any duty, in connection with the administration of justice, including a liquidator, receiver or commission appointed by such court;

- Any other person holding an office by virtue of which he is authorized or required to perform any public duty;
 - an officer, employee, agent or other individual, regardless of rank or title, acting in an official capacity for or on behalf of a public international organization;
