

Evidence(s) THE-Impact Ranking

University : Sri Sri University
Country : India
Web Address : www.srisriuniversity.edu.in

SDG 5: GENDER EQUALITY

5.3 Student access measures:

5.3.2 Policy for women's applications and entry

Have a policy (e.g. an Access and Participation plan) addressing women's applications, acceptance, entry, and participation at the university.

Description: Sri Sri University (SSU) is unwavering in its commitment to achieving Sustainable Development Goal 5 (SDG-5), Gender Equality. The university recognizes the significance of addressing and eliminating social exclusion, particularly gender discrimination, and has taken substantial steps towards this noble cause.

SSU's dedication to gender equality is evident in its admission process. The university employs a systematic approach to track and support women applicants, ensuring that they have an equal opportunity for enrollment. The commitment to fostering gender diversity is reflected in the substantial representation of women in various programs, exemplifying the university's success in this regard.

To further this cause, SSU has established a dedicated admissions committee focused on facilitating easy access for female students, particularly those hailing from underprivileged and rural areas. This committee is characterized by a significant presence of women in leadership positions, highlighting the university's emphasis on female empowerment.

Moreover, the university has taken steps to create a gender-sensitive environment on campus, promoting an inclusive atmosphere where women can thrive. In addition, SSU places great importance on continuous monitoring, evaluation, and data-driven systems to identify and address gender disparities, ensuring that the path towards gender equality remains clear and unwavering.

To conclude, Sri Sri University is resolutely committed to achieving SDG-5, Gender Equality, through its holistic and proactive approach that begins with the admission process and extends to fostering an inclusive campus environment. The university's dedication to this cause is not just in words but in action, making gender equality an integral part of its ethos.